Keegan's Clan St. Baldrick's Event

January 27, 2010

I would like to invite you to participate as a sponsor for Keegan's Clan St. Baldrick's Event. This is an amazing event and we have lots of FUN! I was able to reach my personal goal of $10,000 last year and I have set the same goal for this year. As a group, we raised over $42,000. Cancer is the number one killer of children. I am a cancer survivor and I am now a freshman at Roncalli High School. Not all of our honored children have been as fortunate as me, as evidenced by passing of my friend, Tyler Genneken in November, 2009. Our goal is raise money for children's cancer research and we are partnering with St. Baldrick's Foundation to hold our event. There were 634 St. Baldrick's events in 2009 raising almost $17 million. Our event has been the second largest in Indiana for the past four years. Please help me raise money to find a cure for cancer so other children and families will not have to go through this terrible battle.
